

Unity ^{in the} Heart of Austin Continues to Serve Online

Dear Unity in the Heart of Austin Members, Family and Friends,

Let us acknowledge the One Power and One Presence, God. Knowing that we are all made in the image and likeness of this goodness, we call it forth now to establish Peace, Divine Wisdom, Love, and Wholeness.

Online Meetings

Unity in the Heart of Austin is following the direction of local and national public health leaders; therefore, we will not be holding services at Casa de Luz until further notice. Instead, we will be offering our service on YouTube and Zoom. Planned classes will continue on Zoom. To watch Sunday's service please visit our website and click the Watch Live button. You can also search for the church's channel within YouTube on many Smart TVs.

Together we affirm health and safety for all, choosing love, releasing fear, and fully relying on God principle. We are at peace and we know that all is truly well.

In Love, Peace and Light,

Rev. Tony Roebuck and the UHA Board of Trustees

Keep Yourself and Others Well

- Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds.
- Or use a hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol. Rub fingers together until dry.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands.
- Stay home when you are sick. And avoid close contact with people who are sick when possible.
- Clean and disinfect frequently touched objects and surfaces at home, at work and in your car.

Bless Others by Staying Connected - Many otherwise well people may be shut-in, lonely and worried. Your phone call or message can be a comfort and blessing.

If You Need Spiritual Support - Call Silent Unity 24/7 at 816-969-2000 or leave a message for Rev. Roebuck on the church's phone service at 512-364-0039.
